Stay in the spectacular medieval town of Cortona known all around the world as the setting for the book and movie Under the Tuscan Sun. Cortona is a charming hilltop town, founded in the Etruscan era, before the Romans, with evidence that the town existed as far back as seven centuries before Christ. Now Cortona is truly a gem, with its medieval charm, dominating the enchanting landscape of the valley below, framed on the horizon with soft hills and the wide expanse of Lake Trasimeno. The easy and relaxed vibe will capture your heart, as you stroll past the countless restaurants, quaint boutiques, artisanal shops and friendly cafes where you can enjoy an aperitivo while sitting in the main square watching people stroll past, just like the Italians do. The town is located in a strategic position between Florence, Rome, Siena, Assisi and the wine regions of Montepulciano, Montalcino and Chianti, making it the perfect base for exploring Tuscany!

During the week, you will have the chance to explore the town more in depth with an informative 3 hour private walking tour with a professional local guide who will share with you all the secrets of one of the oldest towns of Tuscany, founded by Etruscan in the 8th century BC. You will also enjoy a fabulous wine tasting in the coolest wine bar in town located in the main square. A wine expert will lead you through a fabulous journey discovering different wines that come from one of the most iconic wine regions in the world.
